RUNNERS EXCLUSION OF LIABILITY

The Great Wall Marathon 2007

1. BACKGROUND

Participants in an ordinary marathon are easily injured. In connection with The Great Wall Marathon the risk is obviously not less. The Great Wall Marathon therefore recommends that you get a thorough medical check-up prior to running the marathon. This is also the reason for the following terms and conditions, including in particular the exclusion of liability in clauses 2-3.

2. PARTICIPATION ON YOUR OWN RISK

By signing this document you accept that your participation in the marathon is your own responsibility and at your own risk in every respect. You accept that you cannot claim any kind of damages, indemnification or any other compensation for personal injury, damage to property or any other loss, including any kind of indirect loss in connection with your participation in the marathon, from The Great Wall Marathon, unless you are subjected to any kind of injury or loss due to gross negligence on the part of The Great Wall Marathon or their employees. At the same time, The Great Wall Marathon cannot be made liable for negligence displayed by independently participating third parties or the local authorities prior to, during or after the marathon.

If you are injured in any way due to your participation in The Great Wall Marathon that suggests that you will be unable to go through with your stay in China as planned, you are also prevented from claiming damages, indemnification or any other kind of compensation.

3. MEDICAL HELP

The Great Wall Marathon will see to it that Danish (English-speaking) doctors with personal experience in running marathons are available to the participants. If any treatment that is not or cannot be carried out by these doctor becomes necessary, it will be a matter between you, the local therapists and your travel insurance. You cannot hold The Great Wall Marathon responsible for any errors or any negligence caused by local therapists.

If the doctor or other assistants at the marathon find that it would not be defensible to let a participant continue, the person in question will be taken out of the marathon. The Great Wall Marathon does not undertake any responsibility for such a decision, which will be made out of consideration for the health of the participant.

4. INSURANCE

Taking into consideration the special nature of the tour, all participants are obliged to take out a "super coverage" health insurance package with Gouda Travel Insurance Company (Gouda Rejseforsikring) covering their stay in China (cf. www.great-wall-marathon.com).

5. SPONSORS

Even though the Great Wall Marathon is a small event, it requires the same organization and planning efforts as a major event. Therefore, the event is very dependent on voluntary contributions and sponsors, whose interests The Great Wall Marathon must protect. As a consequence, on May 19th no runner may wear or promote any brand or company that may conflict with the interests of a Great Wall Marathon sponsor. If you are considering wearing clothes with logos or writing exceeding 3x5 cm, please contact The Great Wall Marathon beforehand for written permission.

The number allocated to each runner must be worn on the front of the shirt, and must be visible at all times during the race. Runners that disrespect these necessary regulations risks being taken out of the marathon and will not receive his/her medal or running time. These rules will apply without any financial compensation.

Therefore, all participants must respect any request from the Chinese police or local authorities. Any hostile confrontation between runners and local authorities would be an enormous embarrassment to the Great Wall Marathon, and could result in a cancellation of the marathon or like consequences.
